

Monday Memo – August 31, 2015

With Labor Day approaching, we'd like to welcome our new and returning faculty and mid-level providers who have joined us this summer, or will be joining us within the next few months:

- Jennifer Bradford, MD, MPH will be providing primary care services for patients with mental illness at Community HealthLink in Worcester and will also practice addiction medicine at Spectrum Health Care. She is a graduate of Tufts Medical School, a 2013 graduate of our Worcester Family Medicine Residency, where she completed her training at Family Health Center of Worcester, and a 2015 graduate of our Preventive Medicine Residency Program. She also completed her MPH this past May here at UMass. Jennifer will also have an office on the 3rd floor of the Benedict Building at the University campus.
- Jennifer Buckley, MD will be joining the faculty at Hahnemann Family Health Center, with advanced credentials in obstetrics. A graduate of the University of Virginia School of Medicine, she completed her Family Medicine residency at Memorial Hospital of RI/Alpert Medical School in Pawtucket, Rhode Island where she served as the Maternal Child Health Chief Resident. She subsequently completed a Maternal Child Health Fellowship at Tritown Health Center in Johnston, RI.
- Paul Daniel, MD has joined the Family Medicine Hospitalist Service at the Memorial campus. A graduate of UMass Medical School, he is a 2015 graduate of our Worcester Family Medicine Residency, where he completed his training at the Family Health Center of Worcester.
- Laura Hill, MD is a graduate of the Medical College of Georgia, and a 2015 graduate of our Worcester Family Medicine Residency, having completed her training at the Hahnemann Family Health Center. Laura will be staying at the health center for a year as a part time member of the faculty.
- Judy Hsu, DO has joined the faculty at the Barre Family Health Center. She is a graduate of the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, and a 2015 graduate of the Worcester Family Medicine Residency, having completed her training at the Barre Family Health Center.
- Charles Lehnardt, DO has joined the faculty in the Fitchburg Medicine Residency program. A 2008 graduate of the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Charles trained in Family Medicine at Via Christi Hospitals in Wichita, and completed his training in neuromuscular medicine at the Northeast Regional Medical Center in Kirksville, MO. Upon graduation he served as a residency clinician and teacher at the Kirksville Family Medicine Clinic as well as in their Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine Specialty Clinic. He held an appointment as an Assistant Professor at A.T. Still University in Kirksville.

· Beth Mazyck, MD was recruited to return to Fitchburg to serve as Medical Director of HealthAlliance Fitchburg Family Practice, home of the Fitchburg Family Medicine residency. Beth had previously served in a variety of leadership positions in Fitchburg, including Residency Director, Medical Director, and Interim CEO of Community Health Connections, a Federally Qualified Community Health Center. For the past two years, she has served as Medical Director at the South End Community Health Center in Boston. She is a 1984 graduate of the George Washington University School of Medicine, and completed her Family Medicine training at Eisenhower Army Medical Center, Fort Gordon, GA.

· Tope Oluwa, MSW, LICSW has joined the staff at the Hahnemann Family Health Center. A 2006 Masters in Social Work graduate of Springfield College, she served for four years at Family Health Center of Worcester as their Homeless Families Coordinator. She most recently worked for UMassMemorial as a Clinical Social Worker.

· Molly Rivest, DNP has joined the Hahnemann Family Health Center. A graduate of the UMass Graduate School of Nursing where she completed her Doctor of Nursing Practice degree, she has practiced at both the Family Health Center of Worcester and Mary Lane Hospital.

· Noah Rosenberg, MD has joined the Family Medicine Hospitalist Service at the Memorial Campus. He will be working there on a part time basis while pursuing his training in business at the Harvard Business School. A 2012 graduate of UMass Medical School, Noah is a 2015 graduate of the Worcester Family Medicine Residency, having completed his training at the Barre Family Health Center.

· Hugh Silk, MD, MPH has joined the primary care provider team at Community HealthLink in Leominster where he will care for complex patients with mental illness; he was also recently appointed by the Medical School as a House Mentor. A Professor of Family Medicine and Community Health, Hugh has served in a variety of faculty and leadership positions locally and nationally, ranging from service as a faculty member at the Hahnemann Family Health Center to national leadership in oral health services and training for primary care physicians. He organizes and oversees the development of the Department's Thursday Morning Memo. A 1998 graduate of the Faculty of Health Sciences at McMaster University, Hugh is a 2001 graduate of our Worcester Family Medicine Residency, having completed his training at the Hahnemann Family Health Center. He also completed his MPH at the Harvard School of Public Health.

Welcome to all!
