

Thursday Memo – May 12, 2016

Untitled – by Anonymous UMMS 3rd year student

I got a 248 on Step 1. I fumbled, badly, asking a patient if her partner ever
hit
kick
punched
or spat at her.

It offends me to ask. Why should I have to? The world should be a better place than this.

It could save her life.

But I did so well -

on a test.

It is only a test. She is

real life.
