Monday Memo – June 26, 2018

Presentations

• Hugh Silk gave Grand Rounds at Harrington Hospital in Southbridge, MA on the topic of A Practical Approach to Oral Health Across the Life Cycle on June 21st.

At June 13’s annual QI Poster Day in the Medical School’s faculty conference room, the following QI projects were presented:

Fitchburg Family Medicine:
• Julie Morrison, Arianne Cordon-Duran, Dylan Estes, Naris Ghazarians, Krissa Pyrch, Kyle Robichaud-Fuentes, and Jeannette Ryan-Alkasab: Using an AAFP Metric to Increase Quality of Care and Patient Literacy Among Those with Asthma

Worcester/Barre Family Health Center:
• Sandra Augusto: Bridging the Gap Between Systems and Patient Care: Development and Implementation of a Fluoride Varnish Workflow During Well Child Checks at a Rural Health Center
• Xiaoshuang Chen: Depression follow-up project
• Lisetta Shah: Improving frequency and accuracy of medication reconciliations
• Shameen Wijesundara: Improving accuracy of Blood Pressure measurements in clinic

Worcester/Family Health Center:
• Omar Abduljabar: Colon Fitness
• Anthony Lorusso and Carolyn Murphy: Improving Hospital Discharge Follow-up at FHCW
• Bryan Swaim: Improving Yearly Influenza Vaccinations Rates at Family Health Center of Worcester
• Lieu Tran: Improving the Rates of Diabetic Eye Exams at FHCW

Worcester/Hahnemann Family Health Center:
• Elizabeth Gagnier (Kardas): CKD screening and management in the primary care setting
• Scott Goldberg: Mindfulness for Chronic Pain – Creating a sustainable group practice at HFHC
• Stephan Goupil:  Fluoride Varnishing in the Primary Care Clinic
• Olga Kuzina:  Diabetes Education and Management: Making It Easier to Do the Right Thing